

ABOUT THIS WARRANTY

1. AUSTRALIAN WATER SYSTEMS PTY LTD ACN 114 587 692 trading as CLARK INDUSTRIAL TANKS ("Clark Industrial") warrants that, subject to the terms of this warranty, it will either, at its sole discretion, replace or repair any industrial tank affected by a defect or fault caused by poor workmanship for a period limited to:
 - 1.1 five (5) years from the date of purchase for industrial tanks
 - 1.2 three (3) years or less where the tank has been used to store what Clark Industrial deems to be extremely aggressive or hazardous chemicals provided the warranty is only valid where Clark Industrial is made aware, prior to manufacture, of the intended application, installation location and full specifics of the chemical to be stored and has granted written approval to store chemicals in the tank. For more information please consult your Clark Industrial Representative.
 - 1.3 The supplied tank is warranted for storage of the specified liquid with the Specific Gravity (SG) not greater than 2.0 and ambient and content temperature to 45 degrees Celsius.
2. A purchaser of a water tank (in this warranty referred to as "you") will only be entitled to make a claim under this warranty if the defect or fault first appears, and Clark Industrial is informed of the claim, within the duration of that warranty period and in accordance with paragraph 3 of this warranty.

HOW TO MAKE A CLAIM

3. To make a warranty claim under this warranty, you must:
 - 3.1 notify Clark Industrial in writing at the address shown at the end of this warranty (noting that updates to that address may have been notified via the Clark Industrial website) within fourteen (14) days of the existence of any defect or fault becoming apparent and provide Clark Industrial with the opportunity to inspect the defective or faulty water tank within twenty-eight (28) days (or sooner if reasonably requested by Clark Industrial) of such notification; and
 - 3.2 send the original invoice evidencing the purchase of your water tank to Clark Industrial at the address shown at the end of this warranty.
4. You must bear all expenses of making a claim, whether valid or otherwise, under this warranty.

WHEN THIS WARRANTY DOES NOT APPLY

5. This warranty has no application in any of the following circumstances:
 - 5.1 the defect or fault is caused by you or any person (other than Clark Industrial) by using your water tank other than for its manufactured purpose;
 - 5.2 Any contamination or leakage is caused or induced by the purchaser.

- 5.15 the defect or fault is the result of after sale modifications, repairs or the installation of fittings which are not suitable for the water tank or weaken its integral properties;
- 5.16 Any damage occurs as a result of a design fault where Clark Industrial has manufactured the tank in accordance with the purchasers design or specification. In that case the purchaser is to satisfy itself of the adequacy of the design and the fitness for the intended purpose of the design (or mould) from which the tank is manufactured: or 5.17 the defect or fault is caused by the storage of water at temperatures in excess of 45° Celsius.

WHO THIS WARRANTY BENEFITS

6. This warranty is provided to the original purchaser only and is not transferable.

LIMITATIONS ON CLAIMS

7. Clark Industrial maximum liability for a claim made under this warranty is limited to the amount calculated by multiplying the original purchase price of your water tank by the number of years of the warranty period (including any part thereof) remaining as at the date of your claim and dividing by the duration warranty period. That is:

$$\text{$ Maximum liability} = A \times \frac{B}{C}$$

Where: A = original purchase price of your water tank;
B = number of years of the warranty period remaining; and
C = total warranty period for your water tank.

To the extent that the costs of the repair or replacement of your water tank exceed the limit under this paragraph 7, you will be liable for the difference.

8. This warranty does not apply to the colour or appearance of the tank, which may alter.
9. Clark Industrial is not responsible for any freight or delivery charges to or from Clark Industrial premises relating to the repair or replacement of your water tank as a result of a claim being made under this warranty, which cost shall be borne by you.
10. Without limiting paragraph 7 above, any payment under this warranty is limited to the cost of repairing or replacing the tank (at Clark Industrial sole discretion) and does not extend to any indirect or consequential loss, claim, expense or damage resulting from or caused by any defect or fault in your water tank, including, but not limited to, the cost of liquid replacement, the cost of cartage of liquid, loss sustained through the escape of liquid, loss of income, profits or goodwill or loss sustained by third parties.

ADDITIONAL RIGHTS

11. In addition to this warranty, certain legislation, including the Australian Consumer Law, may give you rights and remedies which cannot be excluded, restricted or modified. This warranty must be read subject to that legislation and nothing in this warranty has the effect of excluding, restricting or modifying those rights.
12. Apart from this warranty and any implied rights and remedies arising under legislation that cannot be excluded, restricted or modified, all guarantees, warranties or other implied terms (including terms implied by custom or usage) are hereby excluded to the extent permitted by law.
